MOZAMBIQUE

Y.B. EYE TO EYE EXPERIENCE
MRIS & PLED

AN END TO EXPLOITATION

The people of the Mozambican village of Mazoe followed a long-held tradition. They would give their daughters in marriage while they were still young girls, often to grown men. As chief, it was Malemba's duty to ensure that the traditions of his people were preserved — including this one.

But one day, a girl who had been given in marriage against her will escaped and ran to the chief. She begged him to help her. She didn't want to be married. She wanted to go to school.

As Malemba looked into the girl's eyes, he suddenly saw the traditions of his people differently. Malemba had become a Christian after hearing the Gospel from EHC Pioneer Missionaries and he had been studying his Bible closely. His new faith allowed him to see the injustice of the situation for the first time.

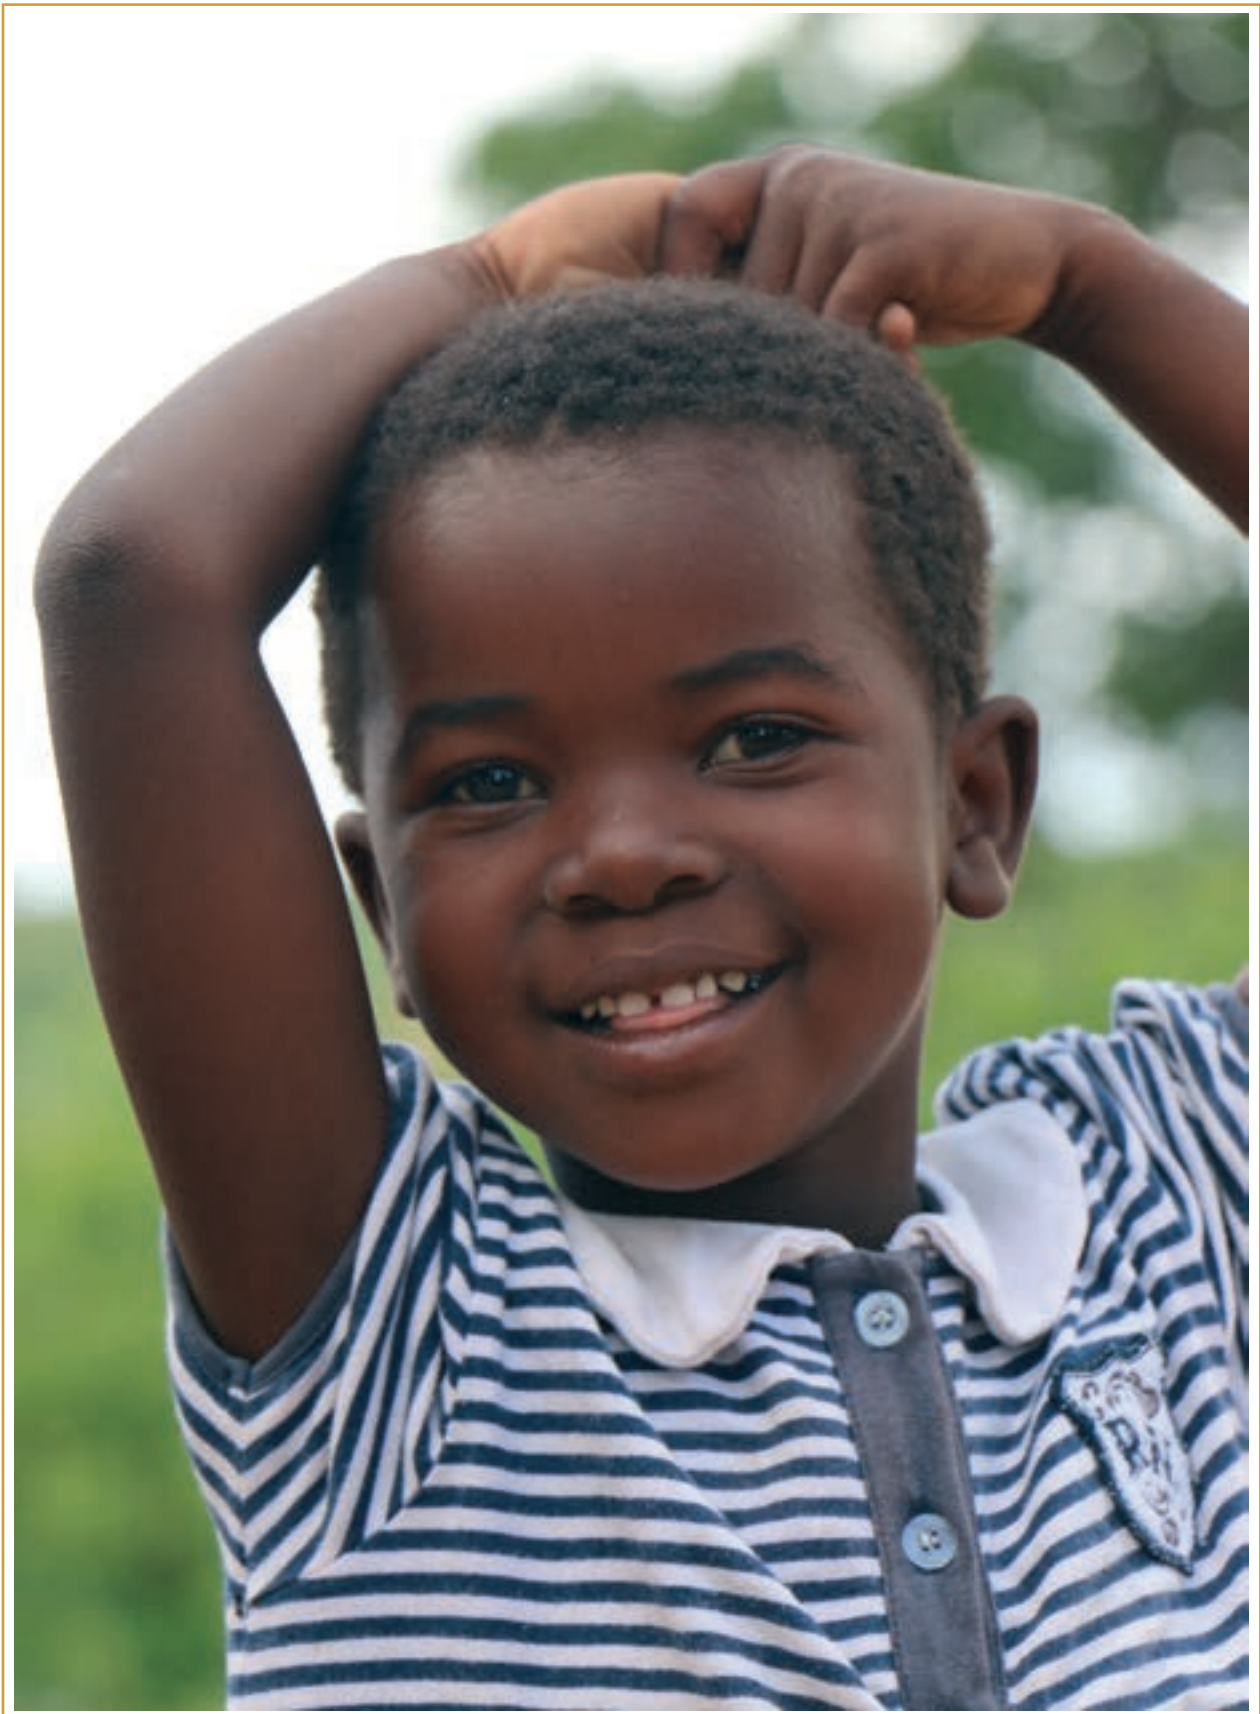

Chief Malemba called the families together. He told them that the marriage was dissolved and that the young girl should be enrolled in school. He then announced to the entire village of Mazoe that child marriage was a violation of children's rights.

"He informed them that the Word of God teaches people to respect and love one another as Christ loves us," the EHC team reports. "From that time, life in Mazoe has been different."

Before the Gospel reached this village, young girls' rights had been trampled for generations. But the revelation of Jesus' love set their most vulnerable people free.

MALAWI AND ZAMBIA FOOD SECURITY

Thank you for giving me food to eat

Once these women only provided maize porridge for their families but, as EHC organised cooking classes and trained women in basic nutrition, families are now eating 3 nutritious meals a day.

In the Malawi village EHC is currently working in, 265 households (46%) were eating less than 2 food groups and 42 women were showing signs of nutrition-related sicknesses. As a result, nutrition education has been increased and new agricultural technologies have been introduced to improve their livelihoods. Already we are receiving reports that cases of malnutrition have decreased - for the women, their husbands and for their children.

Thank you so much for your gifts to the Food Security Programme in Malawi and Zambia. Your gifts and prayer are making a huge difference in the lives of African families.

GIVE JOY TO A CHILD THIS CHRISTMAS

Each Christmas we give the children in our Primary schools in India and Bangladesh some special new clothes.

This is such a treat for the children who receive so little at Christmas.

The photos below show the special Christmas programme for the children and parents where the gifts are given and there is much joy!

If you can help this year with a special gift, you can be sure that it will bring joy to the life of a child from one of our schools - children from some of the poorest areas of Bangladesh and a low-caste village in India.

Reply Slip ...

GIVE JOY TO A WORKER OR EVANGELIST THIS CHRISTMAS

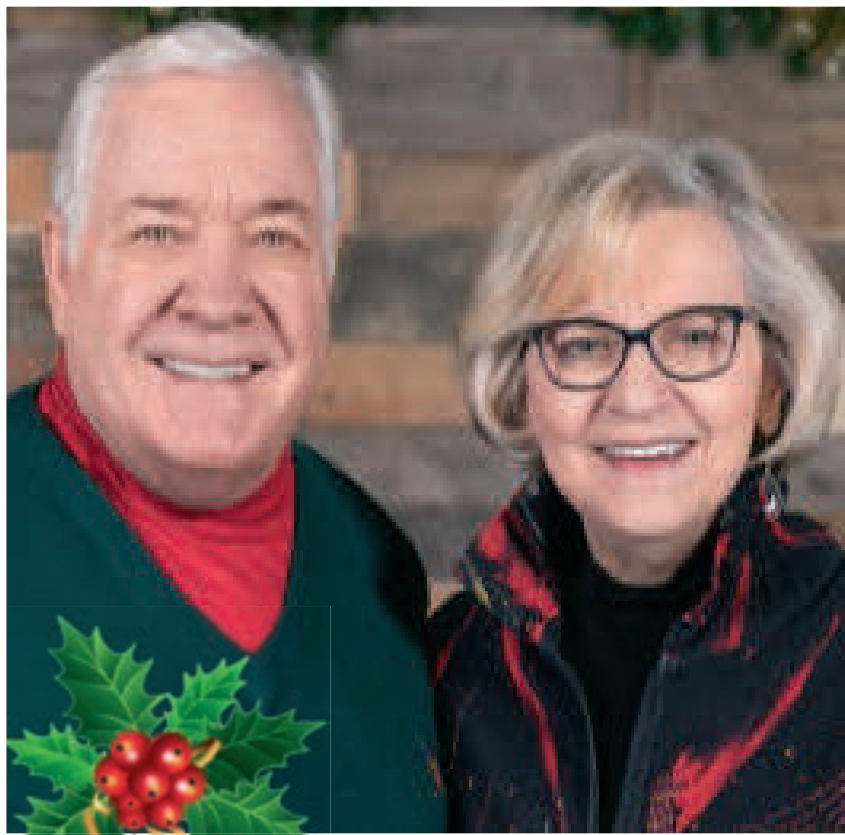

In India and Bangladesh our EHC workers and evangelists serve tirelessly to ensure that the Gospel is taken to every home and we would like to especially bless them this Christmas with a special Christmas gift.

If you are able to help, this would be a great encouragement to them, especially as the Coronavirus has ravaged their countries so much.
